DVD details Brock's peak

THE 1977 Bathurst race result caused a major reshaping of Touring Car history. Firstly the memorable one/two victory became Ford and Allan Moffat's greatest ever moment, but it inspired Holden to lift their game and bring Peter Brock back into the fold after a three-year absence from the factory team. The following year was the start of Brock's peak as a driver that saw him win six out of seven consecutive Bathurst 1000s in his nine career total.
